

Investments Pool Update: Month of August 31, 2017

Markets

- Increased tensions between North Korea and the U.S., a terrorist attack in Barcelona, and the political effects of the Trump administration's handling of the violence in Charlottesville drove equity markets and risk assets down mid-month, but continued improvements in global economic growth ultimately led to positive monthly returns and demonstrated the market's resilience. Emerging market equities performed best as strong corporate earnings reports, a weakening U.S. dollar, and higher commodity prices benefited returns.
- The yield curve continued to flatten in August. As geopolitical tensions increased, corporate spreads widened. Higher quality sectors such as CMBS and ABS performed well as investors became more risk averse during the month.
- Real asset markets were positive in August as evident by the Bloomberg Commodity Index returning +0.4% and the DJ Brookfield Global Infrastructure Index returning +0.4%.

NOTES TO HYPOTHETICAL INFORMATION: This material contains certain hypothetical performance and portfolio information. No representation is made about the overall hypothetical portfolios or their suitability or potential benefits for any client or investor and no advice or recommendation is given with respect to such hypothetical portfolios and are included for illustration purposes only. The hypothetical portfolios do not represent actual client or investor accounts. Hypothetical information, including hypothetical performance results, has many inherent limitations. They are generally prepared with the benefit of hindsight, may not involve financial risk or reflect actual trading or asset allocations for any portfolio and therefore do not reflect the impact that economic and market factors may have had on the manager's or advisor's investment decisions for that portfolio. In fact, there are frequently sharp differences between hypothetical results and the actual record subsequently achieved. No representation is made that such portfolio's performance would have been the same as such hypothetical results had the portfolio been in existence during such time.
